Week 7 • Term 3 • 2018

Hello Vincent Community!

Principal’s report

Hello everyone!

This week is Be Safe week. Our focus is using the High Five when we have to deal with difficult people. We can set a good example (be respected) by responding to someone who has upset us with their behaviour. The High Five is based on Australia’s anti-bullying strategies. It may not work the first time, but if we keep at it, we are giving it our best shot.

Accomplishments: During the last week, students have been challenged to think about what they accomplish each day. What are they proud of achieving? This is not the same as what learning goals have been achieved. It could be giving their spelling homework their best shot, or taking turns on the pirate ship playground.

Attendance: Congratulations CCF, who replace CCB as the top class for attendance. The goal is 90% attendance (half-a-day off in one week) or better.

Father’s Day stall: Today and Friday. Gifts for purchase cost $3, $5 and the $10 school memorabilia such as the drink coolers and 2019 calendars.

Celebrating Support Workers Week: This week we acknowledge the work of our support workers – our groundsman, our Admin Officers and Finance Officers.

50th Anniversary Memorabilia for sale:

The golden anniversary school magazine ($15), drinks coolers ($10), 2019 Art Club calendar ($10), pack of ten cards of Art Club/school murals ($10). Great Father’s Day presents.

D Block and E Block toilet facilities in this financial year. Senior Girls and Junior Boys toilets will be removed from E Block and added to new facilities in D Block. Male Staff and Female staff toilets in E Block will be upgraded.

CCTV cameras: Vincent State School has been successful in an application for an upgrade to security. Ten CCTV cameras will be installed around the school in this financial year.

‘No Hat, No Play’: Students are encouraged to wear a bucket hat every day. If students do not bring a wide-brimmed hat to school, they can play under cover in the CPA, Games Room or visit the Library.

Magpies Cup: Congratulations to our Year 5 and 6 students who participated in the AFL Magpies Cup last Friday. Their behaviour was amazing and they gave the Rasmussen State School team a run for their money!

Students of the Week and Goal Achievers:

Term 3 Attendance Reward Party: This term, students chose to receive a present instead of a food party.
