This week’s focus aims to teach our students how to be respected. This is different to being respectful. What behaviour do we need to exhibit for people to like us, trust us and respect us? Students’ answers include being nice and friendly, using manners, being good at a special skill, following the ‘first time, every time’, and listening. Some of these match up to ‘Talk friendly’ from our High Five behaviours. The High Five teach our students how to deal with their problems.

Bullying – No Way!

Friday is anti-bullying day. This has been a focus for a few weeks. We continue to have daily and weekly positive behaviour focuses. Students who persist in bullying receive consequences such as Time Away (lunch detentions with the leadership team) and suspensions.

ANZAC/NAIDOC Mural

Our Arthur Conlon mural is finished. It looks fantastic – we have had so many compliments from visitors to the school in the last two weeks. The Aboriginal soldier painted on the wall is Trooper Horace Dalton. He was in the 11th Lighthorse Regiment in World War 1. Other symbols include the Rising Sun from the ANZAC slouch hat’s badge, the ANZAC slouch hat and blue boomerangs. The decoration on the sides are Aboriginal art symbols. These include swirly lines (a healthy watering hole) and groups of circle dots (meeting places) with lines connecting them (pathways).

Telstra will donate people power to help with decorating the stained grey concrete wall facing Fulham Road. Stay tuned!

Attendance Achievement

Well done to four of our classes! Achieving 90% or more (9 out of 10 days a fortnight at school) for last week is brilliant. Keep up the great work! Be a learner – be here before 9am. All students must be at school for our 8:50am daily parade. Our younger students are the ones who are often very late or absent. Our older students who come to school by themselves are the ones who are here on time.

Reading Lessons

All classes run daily reading lessons from 9am – 11am. These lessons include English, spelling, vocabulary, reading and writing. Some students arrive very late every single day and miss out on this very, very valuable learning time. All students must be at school by 8:50am every single day because every day counts.

Shave For A Cure

The students had great fun having their hair sprayed on Monday and Tuesday. All money raised goes to ‘Shave for a cure’ (for leukaemia research).
